Organizing Team Welcome

Dear Advisors, Delegates, and Esteemed Guests,

On behalf of the entire Organizing Team, it is our distinct pleasure to welcome you to the 8th edition of the DSTMUN Conference.

This year's conference is the result of months of tireless dedication, thoughtful planning, and an unwavering commitment to excellence. Inspired by the achievements of previous years—particularly last year's memorable edition—we have worked diligently to elevate every aspect of the conference experience. From the structure of the committees to the details of the logistics, our goal has been to ensure a conference that is not only intellectually stimulating but also personally enriching for every participant.

Our organizing team has devoted countless hours to meetings, strategy sessions, and collaborative efforts, driven by a shared passion to bring this vision to life. What was once just an idea has now become a vibrant reality, and we are incredibly proud to present it to you. None of this would have been possible without the continued support, enthusiasm, and belief in our mission from individuals like you. Whether you are a first-time participant or a returning delegate, your presence here is deeply appreciated.

DSTMUN is a platform created by students, for students—a space where young minds from diverse backgrounds come together to engage with the most pressing global issues of our time. It is our hope that through rigorous debate, thoughtful negotiation, and impactful resolutions, each of you will grow not only as future leaders but as active, informed global citizens.

The challenges we face today require more than leadership; they require vision, courage, and collaboration. This conference is your opportunity to cultivate those qualities, to listen and be heard, and to contribute meaningfully to discussions that reflect the real complexities of our world.

As we begin this exciting journey together, we encourage you to embrace the full experience—learn from one another, challenge yourselves, and most importantly, enjoy the process. The relationships you build, the ideas you exchange, and the experiences you share over the coming days have the potential to leave a lasting impact.

We are here to support you throughout this journey and are excited to witness the creativity, insight, and dedication you will bring to this conference.

Welcome once again to the 8th DSTMUN Conference. Let the debates begin!

With sincere regards,
Aria Dapi, Head of the Organizing Team
Azra Yagli, Co-Head of the Organizing Team

Secretariat Welcome

Honourable guests, fellow secretariat members, dear student officers, esteemed advisors, delegates, and last but not least, our security staff and hardworking admins,

It is with great pleasure that I cordially welcome you to the ninth annual Deutsche Schule Thessaloniki Model United Nations (DSTMUN) conference. Once again, this November, hundreds of students gather on the premises of the German School of Thessaloniki to uphold the values of democracy, dialogue, and diplomacy. In a world experiencing turbulent times - wars, economic crises, environmental destruction, atrocities, and widespread violations of human rights and international law - we must stand firm. We are called upon to prove that a clear alternative to global misery exists, that actionable solutions are within reach, and that united we stand stronger against any crisis. For me, this is what MUN has always represented, and these principles remain at the very core of DSTMUN.

Beyond its academic depth, MUN serves as a vital meeting point for students to refine their public speaking skills, forge lasting connections, sharpen their communication, and expand their understanding across geopolitics, history, and economics. Most importantly, conferences such as this offer a unique opportunity for every participant to broaden their horizons, create enduring memories, and build strong relationships with peers.

The main topic of this year's session is: "A More Just World: The Role of Peremptory Norms in International Law". At this pivotal moment, we, the secretariat of the ninth DSTMUN, alongside the Organizing Team and the administration of DST, invite you all to join a vital discussion regarding the future of international law. While critics often argue that international law is outdated, we firmly believe that this legal foundation is what elevates the world stage into an area of diplomacy and cooperation, rather than a domain ruled by force. Therefore, we ask you to shape the legal reality of our world and bring it into the 21st century. Over these three days, you will be confronted with pressing global issues, ranging from the impact of piracy to the regulation of new warfare technologies - proving that international law affects us all, and that a redefinition of it is essential to establish a new era of global peace, prosperity, and equality.

Your task is not an easy one. You will face topics that today's seasoned diplomats have struggled to resolve. Your mission is to prove that this new generation of diplomats is competent, capable of bridging divides, and ready to offer realistic solutions. Throughout these three days, you are presented with the opportunity to surpass current decision-makers and demonstrate that meaningful change is possible. Now, you have the power to debunk the myth that things only worsen over time. Now, you have the duty to convince us that hope endures and that tomorrow can be better than yesterday.

Model United Nations is an extracurricular endeavor for those who dare to imagine a better future and are willing to work toward it. Thus, my advice to you is this: do not be intimidated by the Rules of Procedure, by statistics, or by the current global situation. Instead, present your ideas, defend your convictions, and strive to reach common ground through cooperation. Do not hesitate to engage in spirited debate if it brings fresh ideas to light. You lose nothing by speaking up, but everything is at stake when you remain silent. Speak your minds, collaborate, and show us by the end of this conference that you are capable of delivering the meaningful change the world so urgently craves.

Lastly, we hope that at this DSTMUN conference you will engage in constructive debates, form lasting friendships, and leave with unforgettable memories. On behalf of the Secretariat of the ninth DSTMUN, we wish you all a wonderful experience.

Best regards,
The Secretary General
Miltiadis Stoltidis

Draft Resolution

A Draft Resolution is a document that proposes solutions to the issue being discussed. Every Draft Resolution must have one Main Submitter and at least one-third of the Committee as Co-Submitters. The Main Submitter may be decided between the signatories of the Resolution. Delegates must sign up to exactly one Resolution each. A Draft Resolution is comprised of three parts: the heading, the pre-ambulatory clauses and the operative clauses:

1. Heading:

FORUM: (The Committee in which the Draft Resolution is being debated upon)
QUESTION OF: (Topic the Draft Resolution refers to)

SUBMITTED BY: (Main Submitter)
CO-SUBMITTED BY: (Co-Submitters), THE (NAME OF THE COMMITTEE)

2. Pre-Ambulatory Clauses:

Pre-Ambulatory Clauses may refer to:

- Basic principles that need to be protected in the Draft Resolution
- Definitions that are needed to establish a common understanding
- Statements made by UN officials or UN agencies of the issue at hand
- Past actions that have helped solve the problem

Sample Pre-Ambulatory Clauses:

Viewing with appreciation the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which recognizes the inherent dignity, equality and inalienable rights of mankind,

Reaffirming the Security Council Resolution S/RES/1322, which was adopted on October 7th, 2000 and called for peace between Israel and Arab states while supporting the Israeli-Palestinian peace process,

Recalling Article 49 of the 1949 Geneva Convention which dictates that an occupying power shall not deport or transfer parts of its own civilian population into the territories it occupies, [...]

Pre-Ambulatory Clauses should start with one of the following:

Affirming	Emphasizing	Noting with deep concern
Alarmed by	Expecting	Observing
Approving	Expressing its appreciation	Reaffirming
Bearing in mind	Fulfilling	Realizing
Believing	Fully aware	Recalling
Confident	Further deploring	Recognizing
Contemplating	Further recalling	Referring
Convinced	Guided by	Seeking
Declaring	Having adopted	Taking into consideration
Deeply concerned	Having considered	Taking note
Deeply conscious	Having examined	Viewing with appreciation
Deeply convinced	Having received	Welcoming
Deeply disturbed	Keeping in mind
Deeply regretting	Nothing with satisfaction
Desiring	Noting further

3. Operative Clauses

Operative clauses state the solutions that the Co-Submitters of the resolution propose in order to resolve the issue. The operative clauses should address the issue specifically mentioned in the pre-ambulatory clauses above it.

Sample Operative Clauses:

1. Calls on Israeli authorities not to proceed with the demolition of Palestinian Settlements, not to relocate Palestinian communities in the occupied West Bank and to ban forced displacements;
2. Encourages all member states to provide further financial assistance to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA), an agency almost entirely funded by voluntary contributions from UN Member States, so as to cover the expenses of the people injured by the demonstrations of Hamas against Israel while focusing on aspects including but not limited to:
    a. repairing the infrastructure needed for UNRWA to conduct its humanitarian assistance such as:
        i. hospitals,
        ii. medical centers,
        iii. schools,
        iv. storage facilities,
    b. creating shelters for refugees and providing them with needed commodities and psychological support,
    c. encouraging international volunteer forces to assist the victims both psychologically and physically,
    d. mobilizing both Israel and Palestine via dialogue to restore electricity in Palestinian households and resolve power shortages seriously interrupting the delivery of basic services;
3. Calls for international cooperation in order to combat terrorist attacks and undermine terrorist groups' actions which threaten both Israeli and Palestinian civilians.

Operative Clauses should start with one of the following:

Accepts	Designates	Notes
Affirms	Draws the attention to	Proclaims
Approves	Emphasizes	Reaffirms
Authorizes	Encourages	Recommends
Calls	Endorses	Regrets
Calls upon	Expresses its appreciation	Reminds
Condemns	Expresses its hope	Requests
Confirms	Further invites	Solemnly affirms
Congratulates	Further proclaims	Strongly condemns
Considers	Further recommends	Supports

Declares accordingly	Further reminds	Takes note of
Demands	Further requests	Transmits
Deplores	Further resolves	Trusts

Note: All operative stock phrases in bold can only be used in the Security Council.

Overview of the Rules of Procedure

All Rules can be found in the respective document on the website of the Conference.

RULE 4: RIGHT OF REPLY
A delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned by another delegate's comments may request a Right of Reply verbally or via note. Disagreement with the content of a delegate's speech does not constitute grounds for a Right of Reply. A Right of Reply has direct reference and may not interrupt a speaker.

RULE 24: SIGNATORIES OF A DRAFT RESOLUTION
Every Draft Resolution must have one Main Submitter and Co-Submitters. The Main Submitter may be decided between the signatories of the Resolution. It is highly advised that the delegate proposing the majority of the operative clauses be the Main Submitter. The minimum number of signatories for a document to become a Draft Resolution will be set equal to 1/3 of the delegates present in the committee. Delegates must sign up to exactly one Resolution each. Signatories are not required to support the Draft Resolution during the following debate or voting procedure; being a signatory of a Draft Resolution shall only mean that a delegate wishes to see a Draft Resolution discussed.

RULE 27: VOTING METHOD
Each delegate has one vote that must be demonstrated by raising their placard when requested by the Chairs. The delegates may vote in favor, against or abstain. Non-Governmental Organizations and Non-Member States of the United Nations may vote only in procedural matters. There may be no voting in absentia.

RULE 33: AMENDMENT SHEETS
All amendments are to be submitted to the Chairs on the official amendment sheet of the DSTMUN Conference. Only one amendment per amendment sheet is in order.

RULE 34: INTRODUCTION OF AMENDMENTS

The discussion of an amendment is subject to the Chair's discretion. If the Chair believes that an amendment is constructive and adds to a Draft Resolution, they may inform the Submitter of the Amendment via note. Once the delegate has been given the floor, they must ask whether they may introduce an amendment. If the answer is in the affirmative the floor is given to the delegate to present their amendment.
