6TH DSTMUN Handbook

ORGANIZING TEAM WELCOME

Dear Advisors, Delegates and Guests,

On behalf of the 6th DSTMUN Organizing Team, I would like to personally welcome each and every single one of you to another DST Model United Nations Conference! After last year's successful Conference, we have grown and evolved our ideas, in an effort to take this year's Conference a step further. We took into consideration many aspects and made sure to miss no details, thus ensuring that our 6th DSTMUN will be unforgettable to all of you. Our Organising Team put a big amount of effort into making this happen, but it was all more than worth it. The hours of working together and our endless meetings have finally paid off and what used to be purely an idea is now reality. For that, we have to thank everyone who is here today. So, thank you for participating in the 6th DSTMUN Conference and supporting our project.

Being a conference made by students for students, DSTMUN encourages young people to take an interest in global issues and be a part of our world's future. Our aim is to highlight the importance of the youth engaging in politics and to inspire you to do so, by giving you the opportunity to tackle current issues that affect our world.

As the legacy of DSTMUN is passed on, we hope to empower every single one of you and inspire you to have faith in yourself and achieve everything you set your mind on.

Once again, welcome and let the 6th DSTMUN Conference begin!

Best regards,

Sofia Chatziioannidou on behalf of the Organizing Team

SECRETARIAT WELCOME

Honorable MUN Advisors, Fellow Student Officers, Esteemed Delegates, Dear guests,

It is with great pleasure that we cordially welcome all of you to the 6th annual session of the DST Model United Nations conference. MUN connects people and gives participants the chance to get to know other cultures, other ethnicities and understand the different points of view. For the sixth consecutive year, the Secretariat of DSTMUN invites you to a three-day simulation of a United Nations conference, with the goal of prompting political dialogue and discourse among young people. This year, we are especially delighted to welcome you all to the premises of the German School of Thessaloniki, in the form of a live conference for all participants. Following the most successful live annual session of DSTMUN, we wish to once again give participants the opportunity to socialize with one another while also gaining an unforgettable experience. We wish to welcome Delegates, Judges, Advocates, Student Officers, and Advisors from all over Greece, Europe and – hopefully – the entire world, in our newly international conference.

The main topic of this year's annual session of DSTMUN is "Sustainable Climate Action: Shifting the Focus toward the Environment." Every single committee has a topic linked to the main theme in their respective agenda. Throughout the past few years, sustainability has played a major role in improving the quality of everyone's life with the aim to transform our world. It helps combat poverty, inequality, global warming and many more major challenges. The United Nations itself defines sustainability as "meeting the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs." Thus, sustainability encompasses environmental, social, human, and economic dimensions. However, in this year's session, we will be especially emphasizing on the environmental aspect.

The aforementioned shift prioritizes the need to protect ecosystems, embrace renewable energy, conserve natural resources for the future generation, as well as support the wellbeing of every single individual. In order to ensure a more resilient future for the future generation, there is an urgent need to foster a deeper bond with nature and the environment. This is the only way to mitigate the catastrophic effects of climate change, so that we all recognise the importance of preserving our environment and thinking collectively, not individually, for the greater welfare of our planet.

SECRETARIAT WELCOME

A MUN conference is more than just a simulation of the United Nations. It is more than an educational experience. Certainly, you will be granted the opportunity to sharpen your public speaking and debate skills. You will also gain insight on issues of global importance through the lens of your delegation's policy. Yet, MUN allows you to challenge yourself, by finding the confidence to speak in front of your peers, support your convictions, and collaborate and compromise with others. DSTMUN will allow you to socialize with your fellow delegates, form friendships, exchange views, and take one step closer to becoming a conscientious, global citizen. Being a delegate helps you enter the MUN community: a tight-knit group of passionate individuals who share the same interest in international relations. The MUN community is made up of Delegates, Judges, Advocates, Student Officers, and Secretariat members alike, first-timers or experienced, all aiming to achieve the same goal: contribute to finding solutions on the topics of agenda of the given conference. Hopefully, DSTMUN will let you experience it all.

We sincerely hope that in this year's DSTMUN, you will be welcomed by the conference's openness and willingness to bring constructive dialogue and collaboration on world problems to life. We strive for the debate, which you will participate in fostering, to broaden your horizons and offer you new global perspectives. On behalf of the Secretariat of the 6th DSTMUN, we wish you all a wonderful conference filled with the best memories!

Best regards,

The Secretary General, Petros Salonikidis
The President of the General Assmbly, Fani Kantzavelos

A Draft Resolution is a document that proposes solutions to the issue being discussed. Every Draft Resolution must have one Main Submitter and at least one-third of the Committee as Co-Submitters. The Main Submitter may be decided between the signatories of the Resolution. Delegates must sign up for exactly one Resolution each. A Draft Resolution is comprised of three parts: the heading, the pre-ambulatory clauses and the operative clauses:

1. Heading:

FORUM: (The Committee in which the Draft Resolution is being debated upon)

QUESTION OF: (Topic the Draft Resolution refers to)

SUBMITTED BY: (Main Submitter)

CO-SUBMITTED BY: (Co-Submitters)

THE (NAME OF THE COMMITTEE),

2. Pre-Ambulatory Clauses:

Pre-Ambulatory Clauses may refer to:

- Basic principles that need to be protected in the Draft Resolution
- Definitions that are needed to establish a common understanding
- Statements made by UN officials or UN agencies about the issue at hand
- Past actions that have helped solve the problem

Sample Pre-Ambulatory Clauses:

Viewing with appreciation the celebration of the 70th anniversary of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, which recognizes the inherent dignity, equality and inalienable rights of mankind,

Reaffirming the Security Council Resolution S/RES/1322, which was adopted on October 7th, 2000 and called for peace between Israel and Arab states while supporting the Israeli- Palestinian peace process,

Recalling Article 49 of the 1949 Geneva Convention which dictates that an occupying power shall not deport or transfer parts of its own civilian population into the territories it occupies,

Pre-Ambulatory Clauses should start with one of the following:

Affirming Alarmed by Approving Bearing in mind Believing Confident Contemplating Convinced Declaring Deeply concerned Deeply conscious Deeply convinced Deeply disturbed Deeply regretting Desiring	Emphasizing Expecting Expressing its appreciation Fulfilling Fully aware Further deploring Further recalling Guided by Having adopted Having considered Having examined Having received Keeping in mind Nothing with satisfaction Noting further	Noting with deep concern Observing Reaffirming Realizing Recalling Recognizing Referring Seeking Taking into consideration Taking note Viewing with appreciation Welcoming
--	---	---

3. Operative Clauses

Operative clauses state the solutions that the Co-Submitters of the resolution propose in order to resolve the issue. The operative clauses should address the issue specifically mentioned in the pre-ambulatory clauses above it.

Sample Operative Clauses:

1. Calls on Israeli authorities not to proceed with the demolition of Palestinian Settlements, not to relocate Palestinian communities in the occupied West Bank and to ban forced displacements;

2. Encourages all member states to provide further financial assistance to the United Nations Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees (UNRWA), an agency almost entirely funded by voluntary contributions from UN Member States, so as to cover the expenses of the people injured by the demonstrations of Hamas against Israel while focusing on aspects including but not limited to:
 - a. repairing the infrastructure needed for UNRWA to conduct its humanitarian assistance such as:
 - i. hospitals,
 - ii. medical centres,
 - iii. schools,
 - iv. storage facilities,
 - b. creating shelters for refugees and providing them with needed commodities and psychological support,
 - c. encouraging international volunteer forces to assist the victims both psychologically and physically,
 - d. mobilizing both Israel and Palestine via dialogue to restore electricity in Palestinian households and resolve power shortages seriously interrupting the delivery of basic services;

3. Calls for international cooperation in order to combat terrorist attacks and undermine terrorist groups' actions which threaten both Israeli and Palestinian civilians.

Note: Operative Clauses must be underlined in Resolutions.

Operative Clauses should start with one of the following:

DRAFT RESOLUTIONS

Accepts Affirms Approves Authorizes Calls Calls upon Condemns Confirms Congratulates Considers Declares accordingly Demands Deplores	Designates Draws the attention to Emphasizes Encourages Endorses Expresses its appreciation Expresses its hope Further invites Further proclaims Further recommends Further reminds Further requests Further resolves	Notes Proclaims Reaffirms Recommends Regrets Reminds Requests Solemnly affirms Strongly condemns Supports Takes note of Transmits Trusts
--	--	--

Note: All operative stock phrases in bold can only be used in the Security Council.

OVERVIEW OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

All Rules can be found in the respective document on the website of the Conference.

RULE 4: RIGHT OF REPLY

A delegate whose personal or national integrity has been impugned by another delegate's comments may request a Right of Reply verbally or via note. Disagreement with the content of a delegate's speech does not constitute grounds for a Right of Reply. A Right of Reply has direct reference and may not interrupt a speaker.

RULE 24: SIGNATORIES OF A DRAFT RESOLUTION

Every Draft Resolution must have one Main Submitter and Co-Submitters. The Main Submitter may be decided between the signatories of the Resolution. It is highly advised that the delegate proposing the majority of the operative clauses be the Main Submitter. The minimum number of signatories for a document to become a Draft Resolution will be set equal to 1/3 of the delegates present in the committee. Delegates must sign up to exactly one Resolution each. Signatories are not required to support the Draft Resolution during the following debate or voting procedure; being a signatory of a Draft Resolution shall only mean that a delegate wishes to see a Draft Resolution discussed.

RULE 27: VOTING METHOD

Each delegate has one vote that must be demonstrated by raising their placard when requested by the Chairs. The delegates may vote in favour, against or abstain. Non-Governmental Organizations and Non-Member States of the United Nations may vote only in procedural matters. There may be no voting in absentia.

RULE 33: AMENDMENT SHEETS

All amendments are to be submitted to the Chairs on the official amendment sheet of the DSTMUN Conference. Only one amendment per amendment sheet is in order.

RULE 34: INTRODUCTION OF AMENDMENTS

The discussion of an amendment is subject to the Chair's discretion. If the Chair believes that an amendment is constructive and adds to a Draft Resolution, they may inform the Submitter of the Amendment via note. Once the delegate has been given the floor, they must ask whether they may introduce an amendment. If the answer is in the affirmative the floor is given to the delegate to present their amendment.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Conduct

Standards of conduct for all conference participants are expected to be maintained at a high level at all times. All participants are expected to behave in an appropriate manner and respect other delegates, chairs and staff. The Secretariat reserves the right to ban any participant failing to adhere to the rules of the conference.

Dress regulations

Participants should be reminded that the conference is a formal conference and that a formal dress code is applied. For example, jeans, denim or cloth jackets, short skirts, open-necked shirts, T-shirts or sneakers will not be permitted. At repetitive failing to dress according to the regulations participants may not be allowed onto school premises.

Photocopying

All conference participants are expected to bring their own electronic device (laptop) in order to participate. Bringing note paper is optional and if so, each delegation is responsible for supplying their own. Due to the DSTMUN's sustainability policy, photocopying will not be permitted for delegates, judges and advocates. For Student Officers and Advisors, it must first be approved by the Head of Sustainability of the Organising Team or the Secretary-General.

Badges

Participants are expected to wear their badge at all times. Anyone without a badge may not be permitted onto school premises. If lost, a new badge has to be issued at corresponding costs.

Placards

Placards are provided on the basis of one per delegate. They are needed for being recognized and for voting during committee work. In case it is lost a new one has to be issued at corresponding costs.

Information for Student Officers

In case of any unexpected incidents or emergencies, Student Officers are required to inform the Organising Team and Secretariat, who may initiate any further action accordingly.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Smoking and alcohol

Smoking, vaping and consumption of alcohol are strictly forbidden on the school premises for all participants. Furthermore, anyone coming to the conference having visibly consumed alcohol before will be denied entrance. Failing to abide by this rule may result in a ban from DSTMUN.

Sustainability

In accordance with our sustainability policy, we kindly ask all participants to use the designated recycling bins for any litter. All documents, with few exceptions, must be digital. If any delegation wishes to have their documents printed they may either do so themselves or have them printed by the Organising Team at corresponding cost of 0.1€ per copy.

Miscellaneous

The Robes of the International Court of Justice are property of the DSTMUN Conference. They will be given to the Judges upon entering the Courtroom. They may not be defaced or be worn outside of the Courtroom. Similar rules apply and respectful behaviour is awaited towards any other objects (e.g. flags, gavels), property of the conference and/or school.

Mobile phones

All participants are expected to carry a phone with them for any possible case of emergency. During committee work, it may however be turned off. Latter is up to the discretion of the committee's chairs to decide. During the Opening and Closing ceremonies, all mobile devices must be turned off or turned silent.

Information on the Rules of Procedure

All delegates are expected to be acquainted with and abide by the Rules of Procedure of DSTMUN during committee work. If that is not the case the chairs may remind them. At the beginning of committee work, there shall be a short introduction by the chairs where RoP can be addressed if so requested by the committee's delegates.

THANK YOU!
